29th Annual Border Bash Returns to SRP Park September 16th Fan Fest and Fireworks new for 2022

North Augusta, SC – The Border Bash Foundation is pleased to announce the return of Border Bash on Friday, September 16th to SRP Park. The Border Bash Foundation and the Augusta GreenJackets are excited to kick off the Georgia – South Carolina football rivalry weekend at SRP Park for the 3rd year.

As has become tradition, the Georgia and South Carolina fans come together to celebrate the rivalry with music, cheerleaders and mascots. New this year will be Fan Fest where fans can test their skills as part of the festivities of Border Bash. To create more of a festival atmosphere, Border Bash has added more bands including Coach, Rattlesnake Cobra Awesome, Black Dawg, Greg Hester and special guest appearances by Joe Stevenson, Ryan Abel and Jaycie Ward. The evening will end with a spectacular Fireworks Show!

“We are extremely proud of what Border Bash Foundation has done for the community over the past 29 Years by raising $941,000 for children’s charities in the CSRA. We appreciate all of the support of the Georgia and South Carolina fans,” said Border Bash Foundation President Joel Simmons

“We are thrilled to partner with the Border Bash Foundation to once again host Border Bash at SRP Park,” stated GreenJackets Vice President Tom Denlinger. “This event is a community staple and we look forward to growing this festival and packing SRP Park.”
